

If you're in the trucking business today you need to know this man.

MEET DAN BAKER

Dan Baker is a well-known speaker, teacher and consultant to the trucking industry. Dan travels extensively throughout the US and Canada, working with more than 300 trucking companies of all sizes and types. He speaks at meetings and gatherings of all kinds, from driver safety meetings, to award dinners, to state and national conventions, to in-company seminars and symposiums.

DAN BAKER KNOWS THAT PEOPLE, NOT DIESEL, MAKE TRUCKING MOVE

- ★ Dan's message is the people side of trucking. His presentations are fun, funny, full of jokes, stories and one-liners. But he never departs far from his basic theme that if you're in trucking today, first of all you're in the people business and secondly, you're in the trucking business. Regardless of the Trucking Industry's business cycle, Dan is in big demand throughout the country.
- ★ Dan began his working years as a Methodist Minister in San Antonio, Texas. After leaving the ministry, he evolved into a professional speaker, and since connecting with the trucking industry in the early 1980's, has dedicated the majority of his time, effort and interest toward helping the truckers make sense out of their very complicated, complex world. As a senior statesman of driver issues, people listen to what he has to say.
- ★ Today, the large majority of Dan's work is repeat business. He is known as one of the most 'asked-back' speakers in the business. His work is fresh, stimulating and up to date. His return visits always present new, un-repeated material, taken from the cutting edge of what's really happening in the real world of trucking.
- ★ Dan presently resides in Bulverde, Texas, twenty miles north of San Antonio. He is married, has two daughters, three grandchildren, two dogs, two cats, 56 fish and about nine million fire ants.
